Mathematics:

Our learning objective this week is to identify how many objects are in a set.

- Roll a dice and look at the dot pattern, can you say what the number is? If you do not have a dice at home maybe you could make your own dice.
- CHALLENGE: Can you roll a dice, say the number and then find that many of your toys?

Literacy:

This week in literacy we are reading and learning about the story Farmyard Hullabaloo <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vOhhLjJZGPo>

- Can you draw a picture of any animals from the book?
- Can you copy any of the animal words from the Farmyard Hullabaloo word mat?
- Can you access the phonics play website and continue with the phase 1 phonics activities? Username: jan21 Password: home

Other Areas of Learning:

Expressive Arts and Design:

- Can you make your own craft of a farm animal?
- Can you make your own farm with resources that you have at home?

Communication and Language:

- Can you sing the song Old McDonald had a farm and talk to your grown up about the different animals? What do they look like? What do they sound like? Can you think of any different animals that are not in the song? <https://www.bbc.co.uk/teach/school-radio/nursery-rhymes-old-macdonald-had-a-farm/zn9vhhbk>
- Do you have any story books at home that are about farms or farm animals? Can you share the story with your grown up and talk about the illustrations on each page? Which animal is your favourite?

Personal, Social and Emotional Development:

- Can you share a board game at home with someone and show good turn taking skills?

Physical Development:

- Can you continue to practise your fine motor skills by drawing, colouring, cutting or playing with playdough?
- Can you take part in the Cosmic Kids Yoga- On the Farm <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=YKmRB2Z3g2s>

Understanding the World:

- Can you pick your favourite farm animal and find out some information about it with your grown up? What does it look like? What does it like to eat? You could draw a picture to show the information that you have found.
